Holidays and tours are never just made by the sightseeing experiences, conversing with locals or trying out new flavors and feasts. Where you stay can make or break a trip.

A recent Enchanting-India guest visiting for the first time declared to our consultant: "I'd like something a little different. Somewhere in between five star luxury and the Best Exotic Marigold Hotel." We understood completely. Hotel chains that provide luxury experiences definitely have their perks. But for those who wish to embrace the culture, you're far more likely to receive this if you're just one of a handful of guests in the hotel, which is why we personally test all our accommodation. We've hand-picked our favourite unique and boutique hotels and lodges across all our Enchanting destinations – the premise being that they all have fifteen rooms or less.

4. Playa Vik José, Punta del Este, Uruguay Avant-garde design, a pleasantly calm ambience, and beautiful views – are the highpoints of this work of art called Playa Vik, a hotel property with just four suites. An excellent restaurant, an outdoor grill area, a small spa, and a fabulous black granite pool make this an unforgettable stay.
