Posted By Rachel Leroy on Jul 29, 2013

Jose Ignacio is a fishing village on Uruguay's coast known as it is hosting millionaires, celebrities and supermodels. Some people compare this place with well known European Saint-Tropez (France). In the summer the sun sets at about 9:30 and this wonderful place is perfect for relax.

One of the best hotel you can find in Jose Ignacio is Playa Vik Jose Ignacio, a unique and beautiful luxury hotel. The Sculpture is the main building and was designed by Carlos Ott, Uruguay's most famous architect and it had the most amazing view of the pool and the ocean. The Sculpture features four master suites and an Italian-designed bar/kitchen by Strato Cucine.

The glass facades incline at 30°, one façade is straight, while the opposite facade, facing the courtyard, curves and showcases the flying staircase inside and Anselm Kiefer's masterpiece "The Secret Life of Plants". The Sculpture, with its' fifty-five foot widesliding wall of glass, gives the impression of gravity defied.

Also there are are six separate villas perfect for families.

La Barra is 15 km away and Punta del Este International Airport is 60 km from Playa Vik.
